

Special Issue

Progress in Bioproducts and Food Processing toward a Sustainable Future

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue focuses on advances in bioproduct and food processing, with a particular emphasis on those that have the potential to promote sustainability. This Special Issue welcomes original research articles and reviews on a range of topics related to bioproducts and food processing. Research areas suitable for this Special Issue may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Innovative and emerging non-thermal technologies for food and bioproduct processing;
- Role of microorganisms in bioproduct and food processing and valorization of agro-food wastes;
- Advances in fermentation processes;
- Recovery of bioactive compounds from agricultural/industrial wastes and their applications in novel food formulations;
- Safety aspects of food/bioproduct applications for human/animal/plant uses;
- Valorization, bioprocessing, and biorefining of food-industry-based streams;
- Agricultural/food wastes management.

We expect high-quality contributions that will advance the field of bioproducts and food processing towards a more sustainable future.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

I encourage you to contribute a research or comprehensive review article for consideration for publication in Sustainability, an international open access journal which provides an advanced forum for research findings in areas related to sustainability and sustainable development. The journal publishes original research articles, reviews, conference proceedings (peer reviewed full articles) and communications. I am confident you will find the journal contributes to enhancing understanding of sustainability and fostering initiatives and applications of sustainability-based measures and activities.
