

Special Issue

ESG Investing for Sustainable Business: Exploring the Future

Message from the Guest Editors

The aim of this journal issue is to provide complete reporting of the latest research concerning ESG investing and sustainable business. Examining such trends is an endeavour to create a significant and positive influence on sustainability and ESG investing by showing the various impacts of ESG investing on sustainability. This Special Issue will raise the consciousness of readers regarding ESG investing, its effects on sustainability, and its consistent consequences for the business domain. Accordingly, this Special Issue seeks to be a relevant contribution to the ESG research field, delivering remarkable impact and benefits for all related and interested parties. This SI will provide a base for the investigation of numerous serious research issues, tendencies, progresses, and subjects that signify essential gaps in the field. Accordingly, the SI will provide good coverage of topics that are related, but not limited, to ESG investing and performance impact on sustainability, sustainable behaviour, changes in business practices, ESG reporting trends, green and socially responsible projects, etc.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

I encourage you to contribute a research or comprehensive review article for consideration for publication in Sustainability, an international open access journal which provides an advanced forum for research findings in areas related to sustainability and sustainable development. The journal publishes original research articles, reviews, conference proceedings (peer reviewed full articles) and communications. I am confident you will find the journal contributes to enhancing understanding of sustainability and fostering initiatives and applications of sustainability-based measures and activities.
