

Special Issue

Promoting Sustainable Work Environments through Diversity and Inclusion Volume II

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue invites the submission of high-quality conceptual and empirical papers from different perspectives on current trends in D&I in organisational psychology. Specifically, contributions to be addressed in the Special Issue include, but are not limited to, how to build inclusive and sustainable work environments that have a beneficial impact at the individual and organisational level, through diversity management, inclusive practices, psychological and organisational climates, individual differences, psychological empowerment, psychological safety, and trust.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

I encourage you to contribute a research or comprehensive review article for consideration for publication in Sustainability, an international Open Access journal which provides an advanced forum for research findings in areas related to sustainability and sustainable development. Sustainability publishes original research articles, review articles and communications. I am confident you will find the journal contributes to enhancing understanding of sustainability and fostering initiatives and applications of sustainability-based measures and activities.
