

Special Issue

Sustainable Agri-Tourism: Innovations, Advances and Practices

Message from the Guest Editors

Agri-tourism is a dynamic and influential business sector with far-reaching implications for global sustainability. As destinations face increasing pressures from over-tourism, resource depletion and cultural/heritage disruption, the need for innovative and responsible agri-tourism practices has become more urgent than ever.

This Special Issue, "Sustainable Agri-Tourism: Innovations, Advances and Practices", invites contributions that explore the growing number of geopolitical, cultural, environmental and socio-economic forces affecting agricultural travel destinations and how these challenges are being addressed to promote environmental stewardship, economic prosperity and cultural uniqueness. Thematic Pillars:

- Agri-Tourism Digital and Data-Driven Innovations
- Nature-Based Solutions and Regenerative Tourism
- Circular Economy and Net-Zero Pathways
- Community-centric and Inclusive Innovations
- Resilience, Risk and Climate Adaptation
