

Special Issue

Sustainable Solutions for Wastewater Treatment: Innovations and Applications

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue aims to provide a platform for researchers, engineers, and practitioners to share recent advances, practical applications, and theoretical insights into sustainable wastewater treatment. In alignment with the journal's mission to promote environmental, social, and economic sustainability, this Issue emphasizes interdisciplinary approaches that integrate technological innovation, environmental assessment, and resource optimization. By fostering dialogs between academia, industry, and policy-makers, this Special Issue seeks to promote holistic and actionable strategies that address current wastewater treatment challenges and support the United Nations' Sustainable Development Goals—particularly Goal 6 (Clean Water and Sanitation) and Goal 13 (Climate Action).

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

I encourage you to contribute a research or comprehensive review article for consideration for publication in Sustainability, an international open access journal which provides an advanced forum for research findings in areas related to sustainability and sustainable development. The journal publishes original research articles, reviews, conference proceedings (peer reviewed full articles) and communications. I am confident you will find the journal contributes to enhancing understanding of sustainability and fostering initiatives and applications of sustainability-based measures and activities.
