Strategic Leadership and Innovation in Sustainability: Driving Organizational Transformation in Complex Environments

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue aims to provide a platform for cutting-edge research on how strategic leadership fosters innovation for sustainability at the organisational, inter-organisational, and ecosystem levels. By bringing together diverse perspectives, this Special Issue seeks to deepen theoretical understanding and to offer practical guidance for leaders and policymakers working to integrate sustainability and innovation into core strategy and practice. In this Special Issue, original research articles and reviews are welcome. Research areas may include, but are not limited to, the following themes:

- Strategic leadership for sustainable business models
- Leadership, ESG, and responsible corporate governance
- Innovation for environmental and social impact
- Digital and AI-enabled sustainability leadership
- Organisational capabilities and culture for sustainable innovation
- Sustainable entrepreneurship and intrapreneurship
- Cross-sector partnerships and ecosystem leadership
- Leadership in public sector and non-profit sustainability initiatives
- Stakeholder engagement, communication, and legitimacy in sustainable innovation
- Measurement, impact assessment, and performance of sustainable innovation
