Ecological Sustainability on Agroforests for Mammal Biodiversity Conservation

Message from the Guest Editor

We are soliciting submissions for a Special Issue entitled "Ecological Sustainability on Agroforests for Mammal Biodiversity Conservation", to be published in the Sustainability Journal. I am Ricardo Siqueira Bovendorp, and am serving as a for this Special Issue. For further reading, please follow the link to the Special Issue Website. In this Special Issue, we aim to highlight papers that address the ecological sustainability of agroforests for the conservation of mammal biodiversity. We welcome the submission of either review or original research articles that cover a broad range of topics related to mammal biodiversity in agroforests. We also particularly welcome papers that discuss the ecological consequences of the shift in and loss of mammal biodiversity, and stimulate a debate on how to revert the loss of mammals to restore biodiversity and ecosystem functions and services.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

I encourage you to contribute a research or comprehensive review article for consideration for publication in Sustainability, an international Open Access journal which provides an advanced forum for research findings in areas related to sustainability and sustainable development. Sustainability publishes original research articles, review articles and communications. I am confident you will find the journal contributes to enhancing understanding of sustainability and fostering initiatives and applications of sustainability-based measures and activities.
