Rural–Urban Integration and Revitalization: A Sustainability Perspective

Message from the Guest Editor

We welcome theoretical frameworks, empirical studies, and case analyses that highlight successful practices or lessons learned from diverse geographical contexts. Topics may include, but are not limited to, the following: agro-tourism synergies, green infrastructure networks, decentralized renewable energy systems, and policy innovations in land tenure or fiscal decentralization, partnerships/relations between small-scale farmers and agribusiness. By curating cutting-edge research and fostering cross-sectoral dialogue, this issue aims to contribute actionable insights for policymakers, practitioners, and scholars committed to building regenerative rural–urban ecosystems. Together, we can rechart a future where cities and countryside thrive interdependently—anchored in justice, sustainability, and shared prosperity.
