Aviation Management and Air Transport Industry

Message from the Guest Editor

The world is connected through globalization. Due to this fact, interactions by air transportation are increasing rapidly. Aviation is a key component of the global economy, and the air transport industry is considered as one of the most important criteria in evaluating national economic growth. In order for us to have a clear understanding of the growing air transport industry, it is essential to investigate the various issues related to aviation management and the air transport industry.
