Special Issue

Impeding Future Perils via Social, Agri-Food and Ecosystem Interlinkages

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue will comprise a selection of papers from the 188th EAAE Seminar on "Reorienting Agri-Food Chains to Hinder Climate Change and Food Security Threats" to be held on 12-13 September 2024, in Chania, Greece. The 188th EAAE Seminar's objectives are to bring together scholars and researchers in the field, as well as stakeholders from supply chains, that will exchange ideas, practices and research initiatives that cover most of the current food systems. biodiversity, and agri-food chain developments for assisting policy-making decisions in agriculture and the agri-food industry. In this context, this Special Issue aspires to create a forum for the promotion of food systems' resilience through biodiverse supply chains in the global agri-food sector. Therefore, both empirical and methodological research papers are equally welcome. Papers selected for this Special Issue will be subjected to a rigorous peer-review process with the aim of a wide dissemination of valuable research results.
