Business Process Automation and Innovation

Message from the Guest Editors

For this SI, we welcome research from all traditions, different theoretical perspectives, and across different contexts. Topics of interest include (but are not limited to) the following:

- Sustainable and green business process management;
- Methods to innovate business processes with a focus on (economic, environmental, and social) sustainability;
- Conceptual process modeling for sustainably competitive business processes;
- Using process automation to increase process sustainability;
- Building sustainable capabilities for process automation and innovation;
- Analyzing the effects of process automation on different sustainability measures (e.g., the triple bottom line);
- Using process mining and analytics to understand the sustainability impact of processes and process changes.

We look forward to receiving your contributions at any time—early submissions to the SI are warmly welcomed. Feel free to contact us before your submission to assure it fits in the Special Issue.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

I encourage you to contribute a research or comprehensive review article for consideration for publication in Sustainability, an international Open Access journal which provides an advanced forum for research findings in areas related to sustainability and sustainable development. Sustainability publishes original research articles, review articles and communications. I am confident you will find the journal contributes to enhancing understanding of sustainability and fostering initiatives and applications of sustainability-based measures and activities.
