

Special Issue

Sustainable Study of Industrial Ecology, Energy Conservation and Emission Reduction

Message from the Guest Editor

This Special Issue will accept different types of articles, including research on existing literature, research conducted in the laboratory or in the field, etc. Submissions of interdisciplinary articles, including economic and policy analysis, are also encouraged. The expected impact of this issue is to promote further discussion and research on sustainability in the process industry in order to make a real difference to the environment and climate.
