Special Issue

Sustainable Study of Industrial Ecology, Energy Conservation and Emission Reduction

Message from the Guest Editor

This Special Issue will accept different types of articles, including research on existing literature, research conducted in the laboratory or in the field, etc.

Submissions of interdisciplinary articles, including economic and policy analysis, are also encouraged. The expected impact of this issue is to promote further discussion and research on sustainability in the process industry in order to make a real difference to the environment and climate.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

I encourage you to contribute a research or comprehensive review article for consideration for publication in Sustainability, an international open access journal which provides an advanced forum for research findings in areas related to sustainability and sustainable development. The journal publishes original research articles, reviews, conference proceedings (peer reviewed full articles) and communications. I am confident you will find the journal contributes to enhancing understanding of sustainability and fostering initiatives and applications of sustainability-based measures and activities.
