

Special Issue

Sustainability in Firm Internationalization and International Trade

Message from the Guest Editor

The research lines of this Special Issue mainly concern:

- the analysis of firm internationalization processes, with particular reference to the different types of internationalization (e.g., exports, direct foreign investments, joint-ventures, etc.) and how firms promote sustainable development;
- the analysis of the determinants of bilateral trade flows, in relation to the characteristics of the production systems of individual countries, the characteristics of legal and institutional systems and the matrix of bilateral relations, and the role of trade policies aiming to ensure sustainable development;
- the study of the effects of firm internationalization on economic growth and sustainable development.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

I encourage you to contribute a research or comprehensive review article for consideration for publication in Sustainability, an international open access journal which provides an advanced forum for research findings in areas related to sustainability and sustainable development. The journal publishes original research articles, reviews, conference proceedings (peer reviewed full articles) and communications. I am confident you will find the journal contributes to enhancing understanding of sustainability and fostering initiatives and applications of sustainability-based measures and activities.
