

Special Issue

Sustainable Development of Underground Engineering and Tunnel Construction Technology

Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues: In this Special Issue, research areas may include (but are not limited to) the following:

- Ecological environments
- Green construction of tunnels
- New materials and solid waste utilization in underground engineering
- Underground space environments
- Waterproof and drainage design of underground spaces
- Resource utilization of underground construction waste
- Stability control of underground engineering under complex geological conditions
- Intelligent control technology
- Intelligent early warning
- Intelligent monitoring
- Disaster prediction
- Physical and mental health of construction personnel
- Efficient and energy-saving support technology
- Green construction and operation technology

We look forward to receiving your contributions

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

I encourage you to contribute a research or comprehensive review article for consideration for publication in Sustainability, an international Open Access journal which provides an advanced forum for research findings in areas related to sustainability and sustainable development. Sustainability publishes original research articles, review articles and communications. I am confident you will find the journal contributes to enhancing understanding of sustainability and fostering initiatives and applications of sustainability-based measures and activities.
