

Special Issue

New Approaches in Social, Environmental Management and Policy to Address SDGs

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue welcomes papers, research works, and investigations on new approaches to address SDGs from a more macro perspective—environmental, social, and governance (ESG) criteria. This Special Issue pays attention to the following topics of interest, but is not limited to them:

- Regulations on the shipment of waste: the missing link
- Natural resources management and environmental policies
- Digital transformation and organizational management triggered by SDGs
- Network analysis: behaviour of communities in innovation and other parameters
- Smart circular economy
- Social dialogues to identify the accelerators to address SDGs
- Rural community perceptions and attitudes towards sustainability

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

I encourage you to contribute a research or comprehensive review article for consideration for publication in Sustainability, an international open access journal which provides an advanced forum for research findings in areas related to sustainability and sustainable development. The journal publishes original research articles, reviews, conference proceedings (peer reviewed full articles) and communications. I am confident you will find the journal contributes to enhancing understanding of sustainability and fostering initiatives and applications of sustainability-based measures and activities.
