

Special Issue

Integrating Tourism Development into Urban Planning

Message from the Guest Editors

Integrating tourism development into urban planning is necessary to ensure sustainable and inclusive development. This special issue aims to explore the challenges and opportunities of integrating tourism development into urban planning with a focus on sustainability. The goal is to provide insights and recommendations for policymakers, urban planners, and tourism practitioners to support sustainable tourism development and urban planning. Topics of interest include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Urban competitiveness;
- Urban tourism;
- Sustainable tourism development in urban areas;
- Urban design and planning for tourism;
- Tourism and the integration with other urban systems (e.g., transportation, waste management);
- Smart cities and sustainable tourism development;
- Community-based tourism development in urban areas;
- Environmental and social impacts of tourism development in urban areas;
- Policy and governance for sustainable tourism development and urban planning;
- Stakeholder engagement in tourism development and urban planning.
