

Special Issue

Innovations in Digital Education for Reaching the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue is dedicated to collecting research that addresses the role of Digital Education in the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), highlighting studies that provide scientific rigor, innovation and advances that address new challenges in the creation of a more sustainable world. The aim of this Special Issue is to generate an academic space in which recent advances, both theoretical and applied, can contribute to an improvement in the quality of life of individuals, families, groups and communities throughout their life cycle and in different contexts, promoting social, personal and community well-being.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

I encourage you to contribute a research or comprehensive review article for consideration for publication in Sustainability, an international open access journal which provides an advanced forum for research findings in areas related to sustainability and sustainable development. The journal publishes original research articles, reviews, conference proceedings (peer reviewed full articles) and communications. I am confident you will find the journal contributes to enhancing understanding of sustainability and fostering initiatives and applications of sustainability-based measures and activities.
