Molecules4Life: Sustainable Development—Second International Meeting

Message from the Guest Editors

The Chemistry Research Centre-Vila Real (CQ-VR, Portugal), under the auspices of the Portuguese Society of Chemistry, cordially invites you to participate in the second biennial international meeting Molecules4Life. In this Special Issue, original research articles and reviews are welcome. The scope of the Special Issue includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- Molecular flows with environmental impacts (soil, water, and atmosphere).
- Food security and clean-label technologies.
- Environmental remediation and pollution control.
- Sustainable materials.
- Materials for energy.

Molecules4Life will be held from 10 to 12 September 2025 at the University of Trás-os-Montes and Alto Douro, Vila Real (Portugal), within the Douro region, homeland of the world-famous Port Wine. We are confident that Molecules4Life will provide an excellent opportunity to share experiences, knowledge, and innovative ideas in a unique atmosphere where science blends with social and culture events. We look forward to receiving your contributions.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

I encourage you to contribute a research or comprehensive review article for consideration for publication in Sustainability, an international Open Access journal which provides an advanced forum for research findings in areas related to sustainability and sustainable development. Sustainability publishes original research articles, review articles and communications. I am confident you will find the journal contributes to enhancing understanding of sustainability and fostering initiatives and applications of sustainability-based measures and activities.
