Sustainable Agro-Food Productions: Marketing Strategies and Consumers' Behavior

Message from the Guest Editors

We would like to invite you to contribute to our Special Issue in Sustainability on "Sustainable Agro-Food Productions: Marketing Strategies and Consumers' Behavior". Shifting consolidated habits towards sustainable behaviours is not easy, it inevitably means increasing expenses for food. Consumers have become more aware of the impact of their food choices in terms of economic aspects and environmental and social ones. Notably, consumers seem to perceive sustainable agro-foods very differently depending on the category to which they belong. This Special Issue aims to provide significant progress on uncovering consumers' considerations, motivations and acceptability towards sustainable agro-food products by enriching the existent literature. We invite researchers to contribute original research articles and review articles. Possible topics include (but are not limited to) the following:

- Perceptions and acceptability of consumers towards sustainable agro-food productions and related innovations;
- Marketing strategies of sustainable agro-food products;
