

Special Issue

Developments for a Circular Economy: Production and Management Perspectives

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue aims to collect a selection of original and innovative articles related to production strategies and practices carried out in companies operating under a Sustainable Circular Economy paradigm. As far as possible, the articles should include a quantitative analysis of operational, economic, environmental, and social performance of these companies with the aim of assessing their impact on sustainability.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

I encourage you to contribute a research or comprehensive review article for consideration for publication in Sustainability, an international open access journal which provides an advanced forum for research findings in areas related to sustainability and sustainable development. The journal publishes original research articles, reviews, conference proceedings (peer reviewed full articles) and communications. I am confident you will find the journal contributes to enhancing understanding of sustainability and fostering initiatives and applications of sustainability-based measures and activities.
