

Special Issue

Corporate Sustainability and Environmental Performance in the Latin American Context

Message from the Guest Editors

The call for papers is addressed to conceptual works, literature reviews, empirical data analyses, as well as qualitative works. We are interested in the following areas of study:

- Papers related to corporate governance and its impact on environmental performance;
- Definition and establishment of strategies to achieve better environmental performance;
- Corporate disclosure or reporting of environmental aspects;
- Models to understand and study the evaluation of the environmental performance of companies;
- Development of sustainable supply chain policies and their impact on the environment;
- Implementation of policies related to the circular economy.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

I encourage you to contribute a research or comprehensive review article for consideration for publication in Sustainability, an international open access journal which provides an advanced forum for research findings in areas related to sustainability and sustainable development. The journal publishes original research articles, reviews, conference proceedings (peer reviewed full articles) and communications. I am confident you will find the journal contributes to enhancing understanding of sustainability and fostering initiatives and applications of sustainability-based measures and activities.
