

Special Issue

Disruptive Innovation and Sustainable Growth

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue seeks to develop a platform for business scholars, innovators, entrepreneurs and managers who are in a position to offer valuable perspectives to these particular research areas—disruptive innovation and sustainable development. The guest editors are excited to receive manuscripts on topics include but are not limited to:

- Disruptive innovation and sustainable growth in digital economies. What are the differences in disruptive innovation and sustainable growth between matured economies and emerging economies?
- Do the mixed models of disruptive innovation, sustainable growth and social impact entrepreneurship generate a positive change in society?
- Disruptive innovation and sustainable growth in sharing economies. How does disruptive innovation enrich traditional technology management?
- Disruptive innovation, sustainable development and digitally inclusive models to social change.
- The relationship between disruptive innovation, sustainable development and entrepreneurial ecosystem.

We look forward to receiving your contributions.
