

Special Issue

Drivers and Forms of Sustainability-Oriented Innovation

Message from the Guest Editors

The aim of this Special Issue is to generate new ideas regarding the factors and forms of attaining sustainability-oriented innovation. It is clear that greater efforts are still needed in order for there to be a clearer understanding of this phenomenon, despite the large number of relevant research projects that have already been carried out. Studies that involve critical theory analysis, comparative observation, empirical evidence, qualitative methodology, findings from case studies and longitudinal research related to the Special Issue are promising and welcome.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

I encourage you to contribute a research or comprehensive review article for consideration for publication in Sustainability, an international open access journal which provides an advanced forum for research findings in areas related to sustainability and sustainable development. The journal publishes original research articles, reviews, conference proceedings (peer reviewed full articles) and communications. I am confident you will find the journal contributes to enhancing understanding of sustainability and fostering initiatives and applications of sustainability-based measures and activities.
