

Special Issue

Education for Sustainable Development: Different Routes, Similar Targets

Message from the Guest Editor

This Special Issue of Sustainability is seeking papers that report on ESD initiatives targeting various audiences aimed at reorienting behaviors and decision-making towards sustainable development. The Special Issue will provide tangible success stories of ESD implementation in different contexts and thus provide valuable insights to researchers, educators, and policymakers committed to ESD. Although papers focusing on innovative and transformative initiatives within formal education institutions will be considered, preference will be given to papers exploring ESD within non-formal and informal contexts.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

I encourage you to contribute a research or comprehensive review article for consideration for publication in Sustainability, an international open access journal which provides an advanced forum for research findings in areas related to sustainability and sustainable development. The journal publishes original research articles, reviews, conference proceedings (peer reviewed full articles) and communications. I am confident you will find the journal contributes to enhancing understanding of sustainability and fostering initiatives and applications of sustainability-based measures and activities.
