The Uses of Heritage in Post-Disaster Reconstruction

Message from the Guest Editors

We invite researchers to submit original papers that include theoretical/conceptual, analytical, or design/practice-based approaches related to the interplay between disaster, heritage and reconstruction. Comparative studies and case studies are welcome. Topics of interest include, but are not restricted to:

- Replanning / redesign / reconstruction / rebuilding
- Replication
- Originality and authenticity
- The nature and heritage impact of disaster
- Selecting the heritage for the reconstruction
- Whose heritage?
- Complex, contested and dissonant heritages
- The use of heritage in the post-disaster period
- Longer-term perspectives and evaluations
- Theoretical approaches
- Policy approaches
- Public and user perspectives
- Changing perspectives and interpretations of post-disaster heritage use
- Sustainability and the long-term use of heritage
