The Uses of Heritage in Post-Disaster Reconstruction

Message from the Guest Editors

We invite researchers to submit original papers that include theoretical/conceptual, analytical, or design/practice-based approaches related to the interplay between disaster, heritage and reconstruction. Comparative studies and case studies are welcome. Topics of interest include, but are not restricted to:

- Replanning / redesign / reconstruction / rebuilding
- Replication
- Originality and authenticity
- The nature and heritage impact of disaster
- Selecting the heritage for the reconstruction
- Whose heritage?
- Complex, contested and dissonant heritages
- The use of heritage in the post-disaster period
- Longer-term perspectives and evaluations
- Theoretical approaches
- Policy approaches
- Public and user perspectives
- Changing perspectives and interpretations of post-disaster heritage use
- Sustainability and the long-term use of heritage

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

I encourage you to contribute a research or comprehensive review article for consideration for publication in Sustainability, an international open access journal which provides an advanced forum for research findings in areas related to sustainability and sustainable development. The journal publishes original research articles, reviews, conference proceedings (peer reviewed full articles) and communications. I am confident you will find the journal contributes to enhancing understanding of sustainability and fostering initiatives and applications of sustainability-based measures and activities.
