

Special Issue

Enhancement of Public Real-estate Assets and Cultural Heritage: Management Plans and Models, Innovative Practices and Tools in Supporting the Local Sustainable Development

Message from the Guest Editors

The general aims of the special session are:

- Deepening the understanding of the role of cultural heritage valorization and public real-estate assets in local development processes;
- Increasing the dissemination of appraisal methods and systematic evaluation tools in the Heritage valuation and management fields;
- Providing decision-making support in the planning phase of heritage interventions;
- Improving the understanding of the dynamics, benefits, social and economic values of Heritage as a factor attracting innovation towards territory;
- Providing policy makers with possible solutions for heritage management as driver for local and sustainable management.
