

Special Issue

Sustainable Residential Landscapes: An International Perspective

Message from the Guest Editor

This call is intended to encourage a diverse and vital volume on contemporary residential landscape sustainability that:

- Traverses scales of consideration, from urban planning to detailed design;
- Addresses long-standing issues, emerging challenges and speculations on future trajectories;
- Tackles areas of social, economic or environmental sustainability, or a combination of these;
- Springs from traditional research and/or design speculation; and
- Represents the work of scholars in single disciplines as well as in collaboration across disciplinary-lines of science, design, engineering, art and humanities.

Keywords:

- Sustainable housing
- Landscape architecture and urban design
- Resilient communities
- Emerging challenges and opportunities
- Ongoing issues

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

I encourage you to contribute a research or comprehensive review article for consideration for publication in Sustainability, an international open access journal which provides an advanced forum for research findings in areas related to sustainability and sustainable development. The journal publishes original research articles, reviews, conference proceedings (peer reviewed full articles) and communications. I am confident you will find the journal contributes to enhancing understanding of sustainability and fostering initiatives and applications of sustainability-based measures and activities.
