Message from the Guest Editors

MISSION: The overall goal of this Special Issue is to explore and capture methods, tools and artefacts for the conceptualization and specification of domain knowledge in AI, with an emphasis on novel and emerging AI and KR techniques and tools, and with regard to both the technical and socio-technical aspects (such as technology, legislation, ethics, fair use, etc.) of AI.

Submissions should fall into one of the following categories:

(Original and unpublished research work)

- Novel scholarly article that informs any aspect of KR relating to AI;
- Tools, techniques, evaluations, reviews, updates;
- Long-term perspectives from the computing field that can help to illustrate and evaluate the state of the art in AI KR;
- Reports of innovative AI KR applications in the humanities, sciences, engineering, and business areas;
- Reports of successful AI KR research in new problem domains;
- Use cases, experience and demos of new innovative systems.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Systems is a leading venue for the quick and global dissemination of results of cutting-edge research in various areas of systems science and systems-related fields. An increasing number of researchers are realizing the enormous potential of systems thinking in managing the many unprecedented and complex issues in all areas of need. The Systems journal provides a home of exceptional quality for the manuscripts of these researchers who often find it difficult to publish their work in conventional discipline focused journals.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility: indexed within Scopus, SSCI (Web of Science), dblp, and other databases.

Journal Rank: JCR - Q2 (Social Sciences, Interdisciplinary) / CiteScore - Q2 (Modeling and Simulation)
