

Special Issue

Enterprise Sustainability: From Management System to Corporate Social Responsibility

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue encourages scholarly submissions that introduce forward-thinking, inspiring, reflective, and original perspectives on enterprise sustainability. The editors particularly request contributions that advance the state of knowledge and practice in sustainability; corporate social responsibility (CSR); and environmental, social, and governance (ESG) streams. Special emphasis will be placed on papers that explore or develop innovative methodologies and frameworks capable of integrating multi-stakeholder engagement and macro and micro level, systemic and comprehensive sustainability approaches. Keywords

- sustainability
- management system
- corporate social responsibility
- business management
- governance
- ESG

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Systems is a leading venue for the quick and global dissemination of results of cutting-edge research in various areas of systems science and systems-related fields. An increasing number of researchers are realizing the enormous potential of systems thinking in managing the many unprecedented and complex issues in all areas of need. The Systems journal provides a home of exceptional quality for the manuscripts of these researchers who often find it difficult to publish their work in conventional discipline focused journals.
