AI-Driven and Digital Systems Engineering for Optimization of Complex Environmental and Industrial Processes

Message from the Guest Editors

The subject of this Special Issue focuses on recent advances in Artificial Intelligence-driven and Digital Systems engineering for complex environmental and industrial processes modeling, control, optimization, and monitoring. Its primary goal is to explore how Artificial Intelligence techniques (machine learning-ML, deep learning-DL, fuzzy logic, artificial neural networks-ANNs, neuro-fuzzy systems-ANFIS, knowledge-based systems-KBS, expert systems) can be effectively combined with digital systems (IoT-enabled sensor networks and software-intensive architectures).

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Systems is a leading venue for the quick and global dissemination of results of cutting-edge research in various areas of systems science and systems-related fields. An increasing number of researchers are realizing the enormous potential of systems thinking in managing the many unprecedented and complex issues in all areas of need. The Systems journal provides a home of exceptional quality for the manuscripts of these researchers who often find it difficult to publish their work in conventional discipline focused journals.
