Collected papers from ISSS

Message from the Collection Editors

Every year, the International Society for the Systems Sciences (ISSS) convenes a conference where everyone with an interest in the field of systems can meet to present, discuss, and learn about new developments in our understanding or application of systems sciences. The conference has a topical annual theme, but there is also a continuity of subject interests, as represented by the ISSS's 24 "Special Integration Groups" (SIGs). This collection highlights the contributions that attendees to the ISSS Annual Conference and systems science community members have made to the development of systems theories.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Systems is a leading venue for the quick and global dissemination of results of cutting-edge research in various areas of systems science and systems-related fields. An increasing number of researchers are realizing the enormous potential of systems thinking in managing the many unprecedented and complex issues in all areas of need. The Systems journal provides a home of exceptional quality for the manuscripts of these researchers who often find it difficult to publish their work in conventional discipline focused journals.
