

Special Issue

System Dynamics and Quantitative Methods for the Analysis of Societal Threats

Message from the Guest Editors

Dear colleagues, The Special Issue is focused on the application of such methods to subjects that lie in the intersection of society and democracy. Papers are sought that use these methods in, but not limited to, the following areas:

- Radicalization and measures to prevent it
- Online bullying
- Online meddling of elections
- Racism in society and racism in sports

Methods could include but are not limited to the following:

- Game theory
- Graph theory
- System dynamics
- Agent-based modeling
- Hybrid approaches and combinations of all the above

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Systems is a leading venue for the quick and global dissemination of results of cutting-edge research in various areas of systems science and systems-related fields. An increasing number of researchers are realizing the enormous potential of systems thinking in managing the many unprecedented and complex issues in all areas of need. The Systems journal provides a home of exceptional quality for the manuscripts of these researchers who often find it difficult to publish their work in conventional discipline focused journals.
