Effects of Exposure to Emerging Environmental Pollutants on Human Health

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue invites authors to contribute studies on emerging contaminants, exposure assessment in diverse populations, novel analytical methods for identification and detection, toxicological and epidemiological evaluations, and mechanistic insights into the health effects of environmental exposure. By integrating research across disciplines, this Special Issue will provide a comprehensive perspective on the ever-evolving landscape of environmental contaminants to better inform strategies for risk assessment and policy development.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Toxics (ISSN 2305-6304) is an international, peer-reviewed, open access journal which provides an advanced forum for studies related to all aspects of toxic chemicals and materials. We aim to publish high quality work that furthers our understanding of the exposure, effects, and risks of chemicals and materials in humans and the natural environment as well as approaches to assess and/or manage the toxicological and ecotoxicological risks of chemicals and materials. Please consider publishing in Toxics when preparing your next paper.
