Dear Colleagues,

As the Editor-in-Chief of Veterinary Sciences, it is my great pleasure to announce the winner of the Veterinary Sciences 2022 Best PhD Thesis Award. This award is for a PhD student or recently qualified PhD who has produced a highly anticipated thesis with great academic potential.

2022 BEST PHD THESIS AWARD

WINNER

The award has been granted to:

“Development of novel tools for monitoring antimicrobial resistance in complex microbial communities and their application to improving our stewardship of antimicrobials in livestock” by Ashenafi Feyisa Beyi, Iowa State University, United States.

The winner will receive CHF 800, a certificate, and a chance to publish a paper free of charge after peer review in Veterinary Sciences before 30 June 2023.

On behalf of the evaluation committee, I congratulate the winner on his accomplishment. We would like to take this opportunity to thank all the applicants for submitting their exceptional theses and thank the Award Committee for voting and helping with this award.
