State-of-the-Art Porcine Viruses Research in Europe

Message from the Guest Editor

Taking into account the importance of pig production in numerous countries of Europe, the purpose of the forthcoming Special Issue is to discuss the most important topics related to swine diseases, including the aspects of prevention, epidemiology, control, and food safety. Therefore, I cordially to invite you to submit your relevant papers to the upcoming Special Issue of Viruses. Your valuable input will hopefully enrich the current state of knowledge and practical approach to the global production of pigs.

- swine production
- porcine viruses
- biosecurity
- welfare in swine production

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

You are invited to contribute a research article or a comprehensive review for consideration and publication in Viruses (ISSN 1999-4915). Viruses is published in open access format—research articles, reviews and other content are released on the internet immediately after acceptance. The scientific community and the general public have unlimited free access to the content as soon as it is published. As an open access journal, Viruses is supported by the authors or their institutes by payment of article processing charges (APC) for accepted papers. We would be pleased to welcome you as one of our authors.
