

Special Issue

Advanced Technologies and Perspectives in Wastewater Agricultural Reuse

Message from the Guest Editors

The main included themes in this Special Issue include but are not limited to the following:

- Wastewater treatment options for agricultural reuse;
- The role of natural treatment system for WW reuse in agriculture;
- Technological aspects of micro-irrigation systems for WW reuse;
- Effects of wastewater reuse on soil-plant systems;
- Case studies on reclaimed water use for agriculture;
- Legislative barriers to the use of reclaimed water in agriculture;
- Wastewater reuse policy;
- Monitoring of wastewater reuse systems.
- Public acceptance and public perception of wastewater reuse.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

In the context of global changes, the sustainable management of water cycles, going from global and regional water cycles to urban, industrial and agricultural water cycles, plays a very important role on the water resources and on their relationships with food, energy, biodiversity, ecosystem functioning and human health. Water invites authors to provide innovative original full articles, critical reviews and timely short communications and to propose special issues devoted to new technological and scientific domains and to interdisciplinary approaches of the water cycles. We ensure a critical review process and a quick turnaround between submission and final decision.
